In Internship Corner

You still have time to secure a J-term internship...but not much!

- Chat with your advisors
- Use the internet to see what's out there
- Check out our Facebook and twitter for up to the minute opportunities

Stop in and see Cindy!

An internship is the way to gain experience, increase your connections and get a job.

The Career Symposium on Friday, October 12th is one of the best ways for you to realize what is possible with a college degree from BVU! Professionals who were once in your shoes are coming back to inspire and help you envision your future.

Attend a panel discussion or two and gather information – find out what alumni like and dislike about their careers, how they got where they are, what they’d do differently. Earn ACES credit. The panel discussions meet all over campus. Here’s the schedule.

Another approach is to really network with these people who’ve been in your shoes! Take initiative and ask questions, share your dreams and goals, engage them in a conversation.

Or you can do both! Listen to what they say in the panel discussions, and sign up for opportunities to meet personally. Are you free at Noon? Sign up for the luncheon where we seat you with alums in the career field you designate. Or, sign up for a one-on-one meeting with an alum in your field at 3:00 in the Ball Room. Check to see who’s coming, then RSVP. Or do both!

Good things happen every year at the Symposium! Be part of it!
